Newark refer to Department of State airgram July 18, 1969, indicating subject with was to enter United States under the East-West Exchange Program, September 20, 1969, to accept an appointment at the school of Historical Studies, Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey. Also refer to New York letterhead memorandum, November 13, 1969, reporting subject's arrival at New York on October 7, 1969. Copies of both communications have been furnished to Newark. Bureau files contain no additional information identifiable with subject or any information he has requested political asylum in the United States.

Newark, through established sources only, determine if subject is still at Princeton University and obtain all available data pertaining to him. Check local INS records to determine his status in the U.S. in view of allegation he has requested political asylum.

WFO check appropriate State Department records to determine subject's status. Submit results by letterhead memorandum and Newark include recommendation for further handling.

It is further noted that FREL was extremely cooperative during the interview and volunteered information concerning his alleged part in the [redacted] trial in Czechoslovakia, in 1953.

b6
b7C

During the interview, FREL accurately substantiated the information set forth in his INS file number A18 585 955.

He advised that he is not in contact with members of the United States Czech community and does not have any knowledge of any activities of Soviet-Bloc intelligence services nor is he acquainted with anyone affiliated with these services.

In view of the fact that FREL appears to pose no security threat to the United States and has little informant potential at the present time, this case is being placed in a closed status.

NYO indices reflect no further information regarding FREL. Credit and criminal checks of the Greater New York area were negative concerning the subject.

In the event information is received by the NYO concerning FREL which would merit further investigation, the Bureau will be immediately advised, and investigation will be instituted pursuant to the provisions of Section 105, M of I.

On September 7, 1971, Jiri Frel was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at New York City, and furnished the following information:

Frel advised that he was born as Jiri Frohlich on November 13, 1923, at Veselicko, Czechoslovakia. His father Antonin Frel was born June 11, 1894, at Dolni Ujezd, Czechoslovakia. His mother Maria Frohlichova, maiden name Tomanova was born February 23, 1900. Frel stated that both his parents are deceased. On September 24, 1946, the name of Jiri Frohlich was officially changed as requested by Frel to the name Jiri Frel by the authority of a local district court within Czechoslovakia, having legal jurisdiction over such matters.

Internal Security - Czechoslovakia

Jiri Frel is a full professor of Greek and Roman Art and Archaeology and as such, was employed as a professor and lecturer at Charles University, Prague, from July, 1948, through October, 1969. During World War II, and immediately thereafter, Frel was a student at Charles University studying for his advanced degrees. During his professorship at Charles University, he resided at Mikovcova 3, in Prague. While engaged in his work at Charles University, Frel stated that he had many occasions to visit and study at various institutions of higher learning and universities throughout Western Europe and the Mediterranean. He stated that he often performed work and study at the Museum of the Louvre in Paris, as well as various universities and museums engaged in archaeological study in Greece.

On October 7, 1969, Frel arrived in the United States at New York City, with a J - 1 visa which was to expire July 20, 1970. His travel was in connection with an East - West cultural and educational exchange program, which provided a position for him as a visiting scholar in the School of Historical Studies, Institute for Advanced Study, at Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey. While at Princeton, Frel resided at 103 Einstein Drive, Princeton, New Jersey. Frel held this position from October, 1969, through April, 1970. He is a current member of the American Archaeological Institute.

During April, 1970, Frel officially requested the authorities of the New York City Office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service that he be allowed to permanently remain in the United States. In addition, during April, 1970, Frel was offered and accepted a position of Research Fellow at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 5th Avenue and 82nd Street, New York City, where Frel continues to be employed. At the time of the acceptance of this position, he transferred his residence to 110-18 64th Avenue, Forest Hills, New York, represents the Metropolitan Museum of Art. In addition, Frel advised that he was also assisted by former United States Ambassador to the Soviet Union, George Kennan, who is now at the School of Historical Studies, Institute for Advanced Study, at Princeton. Ny

On March 25, 1971, [redacted] petitioned the Immigration and Naturalization Office at New York City, to reclassify the status of [redacted] Jiri Frel to that of permanent resident, and requested that the issuance of an immigrant visa be effected for Frel. On April 23, 1971, the petition was approved. As of August 11, 1971, Frel advised that he has become a United States permanent resident.

Frel stated that while at Charles University he was a candidate for the Czechoslovak Communist Party. He stated that he became a candidate only in order to keep his position at the university. Subsequent to making application however, he advised that his candidacy was rejected and he was expelled on the grounds of his independent political philosophy which did not conform to the accepted Party precepts and maxims. Frel advised that he has never been affiliated with any type of intelligence service either in the United States or abroad and is not connected with anyone whom he believes to be intelligence affiliated. He stated that during his extensive travels while a professor at Charles University, he was never assigned any type of intelligence mission nor did he receive any financial assistance or reward for any work performed. He did state, however, that when he would return to Czechoslovakia from his travels, he was required to report to the educational authorities of the Czechoslovak government and report his activities and contacts while outside of Czechoslovakia. He stated that he was also required to fill out a lengthy form enumerating any acquaintances made during his trips and furnish background information about them including personality assessments. He stated that while he was never aware of this information being used for intelligence purposes, he often suspected that the Czechoslovak Intelligence Service reviewed copies of this form. He advised that while travelling in connection with his studies he rarely, if ever, met anyone outside of his field of academic study.

With regard to his political activities while in Czechoslovakia, Frel advised that he was very inactive in any matters political. He did state, however, that he was somewhat suspected of siding with the Communists due to the results of a political trial in Czechoslovakia, in 1953, which sentenced [redacted] professor at Charles University to prison.

be a friend of [ ] although they do not correspond with each other. In 1969, while in Prague, he stated that he inadvertently ran into [ ] in the Charles University Library. From that meeting, he stated that it was obvious that he and [ ] continue to remain friends.

He stated that he does not keep in contact with members of the United States - Czech community and continues, generally speaking, to associate only with academic figures involved in Greek and Roman archaeological research. He stated that he has never been contacted by anyone whom he thought to be connected with any type of intelligence service while in the United States.

He stated that he does not intend to return to Czechoslovakia and hopes to become a United States citizen. Because of this fact, he has never been in contact with any officials of any Soviet-Bloc country. He stated that furthermore, he would not ever make contact in view of the fact that he vehemently disagrees with the Communist regime in Czechoslovakia, and considers the United States to be in his words "a great and good country".

Frel stated that in the event that he is contacted in the future by anyone who he deems to be connected with any type of Soviet-Bloc intelligence service, he will immediately notify the FBI.
